New Staff at AJBoggs

A.J. Boggs & Company (AJBoggs) is pleased to welcome Alexis J. Duffey as an Security Operations Center (SOC) Associate to its East Lansing, Michigan office.

Alexis has completed course work at the U.S National Cryptologic School within the National Security Agency (NSA) in Maryland. She also graduated from Michigan State University with degrees in Chinese and Comparative Cultures and Politics.

As SOC Associate, she will assist AJBoggs' Chief Security Officer with overall data and network security policies and implementations, including compliance, risk management, security awareness training, vulnerability, management, and penetration testing.

In her free time, she enjoys hiking and exploring the Michigan outdoors, as well as playing video games with her husband.
